Language Learning for Children

Hello Parents:

Would you like for your child to learn another language?

Are you looking for a way to help your child succeed in his language class?

Are you tired of nagging your child to memorize vocabulary lists?

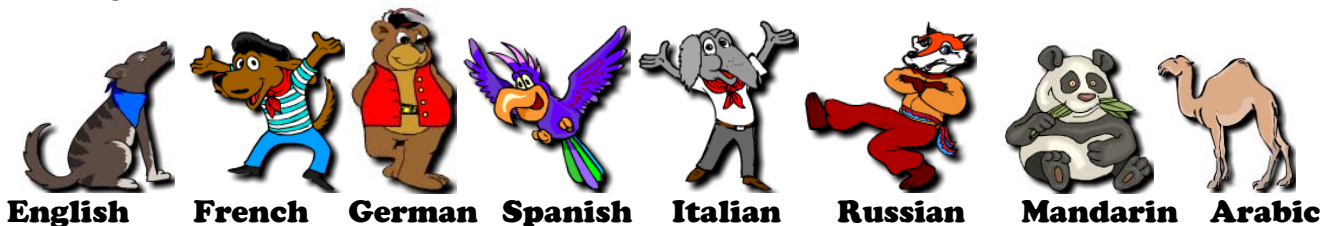

Are you paying too much money for language tutors?

Studies show that children who learn a second language at an early age have a better chance of success in life.

Hello-World.com is a complete language program that has hundreds of games, songs and activities designed especially for children to make learning languages fun! At Hello-World.com children hear words and songs spoken by native speakers. They can also play interactive games that encourage reasoning while learning a language.

No matter what language program your child may have at school, Hello-World.com has activities that can enhance and complement that program and make learning more fun.

Hello-World.com is currently being used at many schools across the country. Now your child can also benefit from this unique program for just pennies per day - a fraction of tutoring costs.

AND OTHERS!

Our picture links make it easy for even non-readers to select their favorite games and activities.
